

24 May 1978

NOTE FOR THE FILE

On 28 March 1978, I talked with Bob Carlstrom, OMB, concerning the draft amendments to the Federal Tort Claims Act which would provide for disciplinary hearings. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

STAT

Office of Legislative Counsel

24 May 1978

NOTE FOR THE FILE

On 31 March 1978, I called Bob Carlstrom, OMB, to tell him that we had just received (4:00 p.m.) his request for comments on revised amendments to the Federal Tort Claims Act to provide for disciplinary hearings. I told him we had some comments and we would call him on Monday, 3 April.

STAT

Office of Legislative Counsel

24 May 1978

NOTE FOR THE FILE

On 26 April 1978, I called the Senate Committee on the Judiciary to check on the status of S. 2559, a bill to amend the Tort Claims Act and to provide a judicial remedy for wrongful disciplinary action against U.S. employees who disclose information to the public about Governmental mispropriety (aka whistle blowers). I was informed that the bill is pending before the Subcommittee on Citizens and Shareholders Rights and Remedies with nothing scheduled at this time.

STAT

Assistant Legislative Counsel